

Newspaper	Page No.	Date
Hitwada	04	07-06-2014

ESSAR POWER INAUGURATES 'SAPLING PLANTATION DRIVE'

Essar Foundation members and Sarpanch of village Khairahi and Navagaonva planting sapling during inauguration of Plantation Drive on the occasion of World Environment Day. (R) Essar group members and school staff planting neem sapling during inauguration of plantation drive on the occasion of World Environment Day.

■ Our Correspondent

SINGRAULI, June 6

ON THE occasion of 'World Environment Day', a 'Sapling Plantation Drive' inaugurated by ESSAR Power to spread awareness among students and public for environment conservation. On this occasion, a sapling plantation programme was organised at displaced Colony of ESSAR Power Navagona and Saraswati Shishu Mandir. The programme inaugurated with planting sapling jointly at Health centre by Sarpanch of Khairahi, Subhashchand Jaiswal and Representative of Sarpanch of Nagaonva, Ajeet Pandey. In this sapling plantation programme, doctors of health centre, employees, Principal of Saraswati Shishu Mandir and other employees, renowned citizens, member of committee were present and carried out sapling plantation. Representatives of ESSAR Foundation and members were present and also planted saplings. At School campus, the student Anita Pandey and Sheela Vishwakarma who execute meritorious percent in last year board examination planted sapling. ESSAR Foundation took pledge to have more and more sapling plantation during this Monsoon. Sapling of Karanj, neem, Sheesham, Gulmohar, Amla, mango were planted. ESSAR Foundation considered spaling plantation and taking care of growing green tree as their moral duty.